

Fundraising Appeals Act 1998

EXEMPTION ORDER

I, Marsha Thomson, Minister for Consumer Affairs, make this Order under section 16A of the Fundraising Appeals Act 1998.

1. Any person or organisation that:
 - (a) receives less than $10,000 gross in a financial year from the conduct of fundraising appeals; and
 - (b) is not paid for the conduct of any such appeal (except for the reimbursement of direct out of-pocket-expenses); and
 - (c) in the conduct of those appeals, uses only volunteers who are not paid (except for the reimbursement of direct out of pocket expenses)—
is exempt from the requirement to register as a fundraiser under section 17A of the Fundraising Appeals Act 1998:
2. The organisations specified in this paragraph of this Order are exempt from compliance with Part 3 of the Fundraising Appeals Act 1998 —
 - (a) any children's service that is operated in accordance with a licence under the Children's Services Act 1996, and that receives funding for a pre-school program from the Secretary to the Department of Human Services;
 - (b) the Anti-Cancer Council of Victoria.

This Order will take effect on 1 January 2002.

MARSHA THOMSON MP
Minister for Consumer Affairs

- Notes:
- (1) On 12 February 2009 the Fundraising Appeals and Consumer Acts Amendment Act 2009 renamed the Fundraising Appeals Act 1998 as the Fundraising Act 1998; and from that date the references in this Order to the Fundraising Appeals Act 1998 are references to the Fundraising Act 1998;
 - (2) On 14 August 2007 the Department of Education and Early Childhood Development became responsible for the administration of the Children's Services Act 1996. From that date, the reference in this Order to the Secretary to the Department of Human Services is a reference to the Secretary to the Department of Education and Early Childhood Development.
